

Products / Training / Services

IROK SOLAR
Your Innovative Solar Partner

IROKS^SLAR

Hybrid Power Systems

Combine multiple sources to deliver non-intermittent electric power

A hybrid system that combines a wind system with a solar and/or diesel generator can provide reliable off-grid power around the clock.

Electricity 24 hours a day, 7 days per week! Our Solar Systems are make no noise, have no pollution and great for your neighbors and the environment.

We define quality as being achieved when a client is passionate about doing business with us. Our support service in the continued operation of our existing systems is with extremely high response times and flexibility. Visit our website for more details on our products and services. Locate an agent near you on our website <http://www.iroksolar.com>

PRODUCT

- Our design philosophy incorporates on-site geographical requirements.
- Our equipment selection is guided by the customers' solar needs. We offer various packages to fit one's budget.
- Affordable Light, Cooling and Refrigeration kits
- Solar Accessories
- Complete Residential & Commercial Systems:
 - 1080, 2500 & 5859 Watt Systems
 - Larger Systems are available

TRAINING

- Education of Solar Systems is one of our top priorities. By training personnel in their countries, we create employment and it gives our clients the high response times.
- Our training classes cover everything from installing your system to maintenance.

SERVICES

- We are system integrators and business consultants. Our team of certified industry design and installation experts implements and supports every project.
- The support and maintenance of our installed Solar Systems begins when you decide to purchase.
- We execute solar component warranties in the event the component stops working.
- Our design team will specify what you need for the electric requirement you state on our solar worksheet.